GLOF ALERT

Pakistan Meteorological Department (PMD) has issued a Glof Alert stating that the soaring temperatures across Gilgit-Baltistan and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa are expected to persist till first week of July 2026. This significant warming will substantially accelerate snow and ice melt in the glaciated valleys of these regions. Consequently, water level in river streams of these valleys is likely to remain high, the existing glacial lakes may rapidly expand with an increase in their water levels, and new glacial lakes are likely to form due to high volume of melted water.

Possible impacts

2. Possible Impacts include:-

- Vulnerable downstream locations and low-lying areas adjacent to riverbeds may face a high risk of sudden inundation.
- There are chances of flash flooding in vulnerable locations.
- The rapid expansion of glacial lakes can destabilize their natural ice or moraine dams, potentially triggering GLOF incidents.
- The thawing of permafrost, combined with excess surface water, can trigger heavy mud and debris flows down mountain slopes.
- An increase in the likelihood of landslides in steep terrains.

3. To ensure public safety in snow-bound and glaciated valleys, residents and visitors are strongly advised to observe the following safety precautions.

- Stay away from riverbanks, stream beds, and local nullahs. Monitor these water bodies closely for any gradual or sudden changes in water levels.
- Refrain from camping, trekking, or staying near riverbanks, streams, glacial lakes and narrow mountain valleys.
- Avoid steep slope and unstable terrain where melting snow could trigger landslides or debris flows.
- Closely and continuously monitor weather forecasts and official advisories issued by the Pakistan Meteorological Department (PMD).
- Maintain close coordination with community Based Disaster Risk Management Committees (CBDRMCs) for localized guidance and emergency protocols.

4. All concerned organizations are advised to remain Fully Alert & Vigilant and take prompt actions to ensure safety of communities living in low lying areas, public & private property besides irrigation, drainage & flood protection infrastructure etc.
